

CONFERENCE ON EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

capacity | initiative | foresight | influence | LEADERSHIP MATTERS 2019

2019 Conference on Educational Leadership | Raleigh, NC

Join us March 28-29 at the Hilton North Raleigh Midtown for the 2019 Conference on Educational Leadership focusing on how and why “Leadership Matters.” We will set the stage with three keynote sessions featuring Jody Urquhart, who believes in meaningful work; North Carolina author Gene Nichol, who will explore the faces of poverty in our state; and Flying Classroom founder Captain Barrington Irving, whose unique approach to learning is engaging students across the nation.

Urquhart

Nichol

Irving

In addition, choose from 30+ peer-to-peer breakout sessions to learn how N.C. school districts are showing leadership through building capacity, taking initiative, leveraging foresight and influencing success. Also sign up for our free pre-conference Legislative Visit Day March 27th, starting with a briefing at the Department of Public Instruction and ending with meetings in the General Assembly complex with lawmakers from your home district.

We know you’ll find that there’s something for every school administrator, regardless of tenure or facet of school leadership! Register now at www.ncasa.net/conference.
