

Leadership breakfast & general session

FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 2019

Leadership Breakfast & General Session* | 7:45 – 10:00 a.m.

\* Breakfast will begin at 7:45 a.m. / Program will formally begin at 8:00 a.m. ***

Grand Ballroom III/IV/V | Sponsored by RTI International

Nichol

7:45 a.m. Breakfast Service

8:00 a.m. Welcome & Introduction

Katherine Joyce, NCASA Executive Director

The Faces of Poverty in North Carolina

Gene Nichol, UNC School of Law Professor & Author

8:30 a.m. Leveraging SEL to Support Students Who Experience Trauma

Angela Quick, Director of Education Services at RTI International

Quick

RTI's Center for Education Services has partnered with three school districts to positively support youth behavior by promoting evidence-based adult practices that proactively cultivate safe and supportive Schools. When embraced by all hands – teachers, principals, counselors, SROs, and community members – these practices foster stronger adult-student relationships to better support students who have experienced trauma. During this session district leaders and RTI researchers will share promising practices for implementing social and emotional learning strategies.

Bingham

9:00 a.m. High Point University Winter 2019 Poll on Education Results

Dr. Steven Bingham / Professor, Stout College of Education

Dr. Amy Holcombe / Associate Professor, Stout College of Education

This presentation provides a brief look at public perceptions on major issues facing educational leaders in North Carolina and offers suggestions on how to use the results data to leverage messages to school boards, key district stakeholders and legislators.

Holcombe

9:30 a.m. Champion for Children Award Presentation & Remarks from NC Governor Roy Cooper

10:00 a.m. Session Adjourned

Cooper

Networking & Coffee Break | 10:00 - 10:30 a.m.

Join us in Grand Ballrooms I & II for a special book signing with Gene Nichol immediately following this session!

* Ticketed Event / PreRegistration Required | Please see NCASA staff with questions